Dublin Castle,
15 June 1874.

EXPLANATION to accompany Return by Secretary

Clerk of the Peace applied for expenses at Spring Assizes 1873. A Committee of Grand Jury examined claim, and recommended a lump sum to be applied for at Summer Assizes 1874, of 1257 L. to cover every claim, and in future years the allowance to be 105 L. The sum of 105 L. having caused extra expense to the Clerk of the Peace, he applied at Spring Assizes 1874 for a sum extra of the before-mentioned sum of 105 L. but on consideration it was thought 105 L. ought to cover all, as the number of jurors had been largely reduced, and that in future years the amount must be further curtailed.

With regard to the poor rate collectors, applications were sent in at Spring Assizes 1873, from about half the number, in some cases stating an amount of claim in others not specifying any sum. The same Grand Jury Committee as above, recommended in the Grand Jury, County Tyrone.

Grand Jurors, and (in the cases of certain Boroughs) by the Town Clerks.

T. H. Burke.

payments to be made, calculated by the number of names returned by each collector and number of sessions each had to attend. The scale was as follows:—15 s. for the first 100 names, and 5 s. for each subsequent 100 names or portion of 100; and 10 s. for standing sessions, if only one session took place in their district; if two, 15 s. for the second; in all not to exceed 65 s. for attendance.

The applications at Summer Assizes 1873 were therefore made in accordance with the above. A for collectors only applied at Spring Assizes 1874, but on the requirements of the Grand Jury Committee had not been complied with, all were postponed until the ensuing Summer Assizes.

Burleigh Stuart, Secretary Grand Jury.

* The list for jury purposes is made out by the poor rate collector in the month of July, and prepared and published by the Clerk of the Peace in the latter end of the year for the ensuing year. These officers make their applications for compensation at the following Assizes in each year, so that there is no application at the Summer Assizes.
